ANNOUNCEMENTS

Thank you to Gretchen Dausey for all of your hard work in ensuring that our Lodge has had a newsletter to keep us up to date. Unfortunately, Gretchen will not be able to continue putting together the Moose Tracks. But, don't worry... the Moose Tracks will continue to keep you updated on any important events or news that the Finleyville Lodge has to offer! The newsletter will be monthly now to guarantee as many updates as possible.

A special thanks goes out to Loren Holmes from the Hunting Lodge. After winning the Basket of Cheer, Loren chose to give a monetary donation to the WOTM. That donation was used to buy Tommy Moose Internet Safety bookmarks to place in our local schools and libraries. The bookmarks help to educate children on internet "do's and don'ts" to keep them safe.

Thank you to our Grill Team for cooking such wonderful food on Super Bowl Sunday. Al Olsen, Bernie Schoedel, and Steve Pastor manned the grill to make great burgers, hot dogs, and kielbasa. Carl Smith deep fried two turkeys for everyone. And, many of our members that were present for the game brought in so many wonderful dishes for everyone to enjoy! Our bartender, Joe Secka, did a great job taking care of everyone, as well!

The Moose Youth Awareness Program utilizes high school students to educate preschool and elementary school children on various topics including drug and alcohol abuse, child abuse, "stranger danger," bullying and peer pressure, and healthy habits and nutrition. The Lodge is selling Youth Awareness flags to hang around the bar. Flags cost $1 each and all proceeds benefit the Moose Youth Awareness Program Scholarship Fund. So, buy a flag for yourself or to honor someone you love, sign your name, and have the bartender hang it up to show your support!
